Colombia has a strong colonial past and many of the hotels are converted from old colonial buildings. They are therefore, full of character and history. Below is a selection of the accommodation available on the Southern Colombia Explorer trip.

Abadia Colonial Hotel, Bogotá

The Abadia Colonial Hotel is in the historic Candelaria area of the city. The building maintains its colonial charm and beauty and its interior gardens are home to native trees. The twelve rooms (with safe, TV, bathroom, hairdryer, heating, direct telephone and free internet) are all set around two garden courtyards and the second floor dining room has great views of Monserrate. The hotel serves excellent meals, the staff are warm and attentive, the rooms are clean and comfortable.

Hotel Bahia Olivo, Villa de Leyva

This is an elegantly decorated, traditionally designed old colonial house. This cosy boutique hotel captures the essence of old Villa de Leyva, a World Cultural Heritage site, with modern amenities. All rooms have cable TV, telephone, hot showers, hair dryer, comfortable beds with semi-orthopedic mattresses, crisp white linens and mp3 or mp4 players, in addition to a minibar.

Hacienda Venecia, Manizales

Hacienda Venecia is a coffee farm and produces green coffee that is sold worldwide. The Hacienda Venecia main house has well-equipped rooms as well as a dining room, kitchen, swimming pool with sunbeds and hammocks, beautiful gardens, a bar and billiards all overlooking a beautiful Colombian landscape.

Finca Galicia, Armenia

La Finca Galicia is located in one of the most beautiful areas in the Quindío department. It is a coffee farm. There are six rooms all with bathrooms. There is also a games room, kitchen and a pool with hammocks. It is surrounded by exotic and tropical flower plantations.

Hotel Los Balcones, Popayan

This hotel has a genuine colonial feel with patios with big potted plants, old fashioned wallpaper and a friendly and helpful team of staff. It is centrally located, has wifi and clean and spacious rooms with bathrooms.

Hacienda Anacaona, San Agustín

Hacienda Anacaona's rooms are spacious and decorated in Colombian style. All the rooms are very comfortable and have private bathrooms with hot water. From the balconies, there is a marvellous panorama of the green valley and Río Magdalena. There is a restaurant where authentic and typical Colombian food is served.
